

West of Scotland Table Tennis League

Data Protection and Privacy Policy (“Privacy Statement”)

What we need

The West of Scotland Table Tennis League will be a “controller” of the personal information that you provide to us, unless otherwise stated.

If you register as a member of the West of Scotland Table Tennis League or renew your membership (including if you are registering or renewing on behalf of a child under the age of 18), we will ask for the following personal information:

- contact details – name, address, telephone numbers, email address, date of birth, Club and team.

If you enter for a tournament organised by The West of Scotland Table Tennis League, we will ask for the following personal information:

- contact details – name, address, telephone numbers, email address, date of birth, Region. For the West of Scotland Open, we will also ask for your Governing Body affiliation number and, for the Scottish Schools Regional Qualifier, we will ask for your school and gender.

Why we need your personal information

contractual purposes

We need to collect our members’ personal information so that we can manage your membership. We will use our members’ personal information to:

- send you membership communications by post or email in relation to essential membership services, including but not limited to, information on League organisation and fixtures.

If you do not provide us with all of the personal information that we need to collect then this may affect our ability to offer the above membership services and benefits.

We need to collect personal information from tournament entrants so that we can manage the event, enter you in the correct categories within the event and communicate with you concerning arrangements. For the West of Scotland Open, your Affiliation Number is required to enable communication of results to Table Tennis Scotland for ranking purposes. For the Scottish Schools Regional Qualifier, the name of your school and your gender are required for communication of results to Table Tennis Scotland.

Our activities may be filmed or photographed and your personal information may also be used in images which we use for promotional, education and development purposes.

legitimate purposes

We also process our members’ personal information in pursuit of our legitimate interests to:

- promote and encourage participation in the sport of Table Tennis by sending members communications about upcoming competitions, and events.

- develop and maintain our members' qualifications, including sending email communications to members to inform you of upcoming courses; and
- respond to and communicate with members regarding your questions, comments, support needs or complaints, concerns or allegations in relation to the sport of Table Tennis. We will use your personal information to investigate your complaint and take action where appropriate.

Where we process your personal information in pursuit of our legitimate interests, you have the right to object to us using your personal information for the above purposes. If you wish to object to any of the above processing, please contact us on wosttlgeneralsec@gmail.com. If we agree and comply with your objection, this may affect our ability to undertake the tasks above for the benefit of you as a member.

legal obligations

We are under a legal obligation to process certain personal information relating to our members for the purposes of complying with our obligations under the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 to check that our coaches and volunteers are able to undertake regulated work with children and vulnerable adults.

Other uses of your personal information

We may ask you if we can process your personal information for additional purposes. Where we do so, we will provide you with an additional privacy notice with information on how we will use your information for these additional purposes.

Who we share your personal information with

We may be required to share personal information with statutory or regulatory authorities and organisations to comply with statutory obligations.

Such organisations include the Health & Safety Executive, Disclosure Scotland, and Police Scotland for the purposes of safeguarding children.

We may also share personal information with our professional and legal advisors for the purposes of taking advice.

As a league affiliated to Table Tennis Scotland, we are required to ensure that all of our members are affiliated to Table Tennis Scotland. We will share your name, contact details and date of birth with Table Tennis Scotland who will become a controller of your personal information when they receive it.

Table Tennis Scotland's privacy notice explains how they use your personal information and can be accessed here: (<http://tabletennisscotland.co.uk/table-tennis-scotland-privacy-statement-2018/>).

In the event that we do share personal information with external third parties, we will only share such personal information strictly required for the specific purposes and take reasonable steps to ensure that recipients shall only process the disclosed personal information in accordance with those purposes.

How we protect your personal information

Your personal information is stored on our electronic filing system and is accessed by our League Officers for the purposes set out above.

How long we keep your personal information

We will only keep members' personal information for as long as necessary to provide you with membership services.

Unless a member asks us not to, we will review and possibly delete your personal information where you have not renewed your membership with us for at least one year.

With the exception of results, information provided by tournament entrants will be deleted within six months after the date of the tournament.

Your rights

You can exercise any of the following rights by writing to us at wosttlgeneralsec@gmail.com.

Your rights in relation to your personal information are:

- you have a right to request access to the personal information that we hold about you by making a "subject access request";
 - if you believe that any of your personal information is inaccurate or incomplete, you have a right to request that we correct or complete your personal information;
 - you have a right to request that we restrict the processing of your personal information for specific purposes; and
 - if you wish us to delete your personal information, you may request that we do so.
- Any requests received by the West of Scotland Table Tennis League will be considered under applicable data protection legislation.

If you remain dissatisfied, you have a right to raise a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office at www.ico.org.uk
