CHRONOLOGY

1926	Dr Georg Lehman (Founder Initiator) invited other countries' representatives to Berlin, Germany in January with a view to setting up an International body to organise and control World events. The Hon. Ivor Montagu was founder President and served in that position until 1967. The first I.T.T.F. Congress was held in London in December during the European Championships (later designated as the first world Championships due to the inclusion of India)
1929	Fred J. Perry became the first British World Champion winning the Men's Singles title in Budapest, Hungary. Fred later became known worldwide for his tennis career.
1934	Aberdeen became the first established association in Scotland followed by Edinburgh (1935), Dundee (1937), Perth (1938), West of Scotland (????), Stirlingshire (????) and Dumfries (195?). Other associations came and in time disbanded – Lanarkshire, North Lanark, West Dunbarton, Orkney, Shetland, Inverness, Fife and Ayrshire.
1936	The Scottish Table Tennis Association was formed by Edinburgh Association Chairman and Secretary John A.T. Brown (1904-1977) and John S. Bathgate. During the interval of that match Cpl Bergman (sitting in a chair) played the highest bidder over one game. The winner was Lord Provost Mitchell with the money going to the Red Cross. SCOTTISH NATIONAL LEAGUE

The Scottish National League – A potted history

The Scottish National League was launched on 7th February 1981 with 7 teams. Neil Foley Sports, Murrayfield Joola, College Rosslyn, Tynecastle, Central, Fife and Stirling.

In season 2 Neil Foley Sports changed their name to Coatbridge Lentec, Central added a second team with Rosslyn and Fife dropping out. New teams entering were Springburn, Falkirk (2 teams) Lasswade, Roseburn and Charlie's Angels. Central 'A' featured 3 current Scottish Internationalist in Richard Yule John Broe and David McIlroy.

In season 3 Clober Engineering Ltd agreed a 3 year deal to sponsor the National League. Last seasons winners Central 'A' changed their name to Greaves Sports and David Hannah signed for Murrayfield.

Clober disappeared into their second year then Scotrail took on the mantle for the next 3 years. In 1989 Leeds Building Society sponsored the next 2 years and that was the last of League sponsors.

The league numbers continued to ebb and flow with players finding more prestigious events to play in and eventually gave up the ghost in 1997.

After a couple of seasons most of the Juniors wanted to play in the Senior Leagues so the Junior League was abandoned.

The National League has gone from strength to strength and the current numbers in 2019 are 38 teams playing in 5 divisions.

1947 HELEN (ELLIOT) HAMILTON

Born in Edinburgh on 20th January 1927.

Helen did not take up table tennis until she was 16 when she played for Dalry First Aid Post before moving on to Murrayfield. She then had a long association along with Bert Kerr at the Gambit Club.

Only three years after taking up the sport, 1946 was the year everything took off when she won her first of 13 consecutive Women's Singles Titles at the Scottish Open. She also won the Irish Open Women's Singles Title in 1946.

Helen gained her first Scottish cap in 1947 appearing in the World Championships in Paris where to her credit she reached the quarter finals of the women's singles. In the 1948 World Championships held at Wembley in London, Helen again reached the quarter finals in the women's singles. Incredibly, partnered by Dora Beregi of England, she also reached the final of the women's doubles only to lose to Mrs V. Thomas and Miss M. Franks of England.

In Stockholm, Sweden, in 1949 Helen had a new experienced partner at the 16th World Championships in Gizelle Farkas of Hungary. Helen became the first Scot to win a world title as she and Gizelle took the World Women's Doubles Title (W.J. Pope Trophy). Again Helen made it to the quarter finals of the singles.

In 1950 Helen travelled to Budapest, Hungary and played with previous partner Dora Beregi and retained her World Doubles Title. Helen if not consistent reached the quarter finals of the singles for the 4th consecutive year.

The World University Games in 1955 took place in Warsaw, Poland where Helen teamed up with another World Champion Angelica Rozeanu to win the Women's Doubles Title. Both Helen and Angelica contested the Women's Singles final with 6 times World Champion Angelica coming out as the winner.

Thirteen is said to be unlucky for some but not for Helen in 1958 as she won her 13th consecutive Scottish Open Women's Singles Title.

During her playing career Helen coached at Butlins Holiday Camps during the summer months alongside Johnny Leach. Skegness, Pithelli, Clacton, Bognor and Ayr were the holiday camps where they unearthed future table tennis talent between 1955 and 1973.

Euan Walker

Born East Kilbride, 11th May 1972

Euan started playing table tennis at home and soon competed in his first tournament at the age of seven. Although he did not win the schools event that year, he succeeded in 1980.

Euan's first club was the East Kilbride Table Tennis Club.

Being runner-up at the Scottish Primary Schools Championships was probably Euan's breakthrough that led him to be invited to national training at Inverclyde with national coach Graham Davies. At about the same time Euan was invited to Bellahouston Sports Club to train under Andy Fleming which gave him the quality practice against other Scottish Internationalists on a regular basis.

Euan's first international as a Cadet was in 1986 with a European League Match in 1990 being his first of over 200 Senior Internationals.

Coaches played an influential role in his career from Bill Cummings at East Kilbride to Graham Davies, Andy Fleming, Richard Yule, David Fairholm and Kevin Satchell.

Apart from winning a record 12 Scottish Men's Singles titles, Euan's fondest memories were spending a month training in Japan, and parading with the Scottish Team at the Opening Ceremony at the 2002 Commonwealth Games in Manchester.

Euan attended 7 World Championships,
6 European Championships,
5 Commonwealth Table Tennis Championships,
4 European Youth Championships and
1 Commonwealth Games

He also played in the European League 1990 – 2005 and the Home Countries Internationals 1990 – 2005.

Other notable achievements were winning 3 British Men's Singles titles, a World ranking of 200 at the age of 17, runner-up at the U.S. Open under 22 Men's Singles, runner-up at the European Championships Consolation Event, and being undefeated at the 2001 World Championships Team Event.

He was International Schools Champion in 1990 and was given a Commonwealth ranking of 11 in 1995. His biggest wins were Oliver Marmurek of France, and England's Alan Cooke, Carl Prean and Matthew Syed when Matthew was World ranked at No. 33.
